

CUL-WEEK

July 18th-20th, 2018

The week of extravagance is all the more amazing when talents of Mount Carmel College get together. Day 1 experienced the theme “Monochrome Vintage”, which had spread the grayscale all over the college, with black and white scheme hues around brought in the vintage feel all together. Day 2 outset with “squad goals” being the theme and also witnessed Sonali Thakker, a stand up comedian who with her amazing jokes and humour spread laughter all over. Day 3 had “high end fashion” as the theme and experienced the social cause, a run to raise awareness on depression and anxiety among the students. This day also witnessed the movie promotion of “Katheyondu Shuruvagide”, whose cast comprised of the famous actors Diganth and Pooja Devariya. The actors set the stage on fire as they enacted a part of their respective roles, making the crowd feel overwhelmed with joy. With so many events to participate the Carmelites are definitely given the right platform to exhibit their talents, thus the weeklong cultural week ended with a bag full of experiences and memories

