

Mount Carmel College Autonomous

Diploma in Fashion Design

Department of Home Science

2019-2020

Need for the course:

The country is moving towards building a SKILLED INDIA. Garment industry is next to agriculture sector which will create employability and entrepreneurship across the country. Each one could find a niche for one self based on the skill and capability .National Skill Development Council has recognised apparel as one of the important sector. The institution joins in this mission of skilling and empowering young women.

Eligibility:

Pre University or its equivalent / work experience or aptitude to work in this area

Duration :

One year

Learning out come

- After completing this programme, participants will be able to:
- Create design collection
- Create pattern of the garment
- Construct the prototype garment for the collection
- Evaluate design development process
- Set up one's own boutique
- Set up a manufacturing unit.

Scope:

To develop a skill this will lead for a job in garment industry or become an entrepreneur.

Employability

- Costume designing
- Garment construction/ Pattern Making
- Garment designing, clothing & fashion industry
- Supervise production
- Sampling in charge

- Quality Controller
- Use embroidery skills in garments
- Merchandiser
- Entrepreneurial venture in Garment industry
- Boutique
- Fashion blogger /Reporter
- Fashion Photographer
- Fashion Stylist