CUL WEEK -DAY 3- UNSCRIPTED X

Name of the event- Unscripted X

Date- 11.11.2021

Venue- Golden Jubilee Block 301

Time- 2:00-3:00 PM

Unscripted X was an event hosted by the B.Ed. Association on the 3rd day of CUL WEEK. The event was conducted on campus in GJB 301 classroom at 2:00 PM. The Emcee for the program was Mehar Fathima from 3rd year B.sc B.Ed.

The program began with the welcome speech given by Zaheen Inayah Khan from 1st year B.Sc. B.Ed., who welcomed the exuberant audience including all the participants and members of the B.Ed. association. The wonderful panel of judges included Ms. Nisha Borges and Ms. Durga Devi. The judges were provided with refreshments.

A total of five teams had enrolled for the event, consisting of two members per team. The incredible Emcee, Mehar Fathima did an amazing job of engaging the audience and making this event a successful one. The teams picked chits and displayed a wonderful job of enacting their situations. All the teams showed their spontaneous creativity and entertained the crowd.

Natasha Sebastian from 2nd year B.Sc. B.Ed. rendered a song and entertained the crowd with her melodious voice. After a short break the event continued for the remaining teams.

At the end of the event, we were once again excited to watch an astounding dance performance by Megha Jeyan and Athira Verma from 2nd year B.Sc. B.Ed., who performed a semi classical- western fusion dance.

The audience thoroughly enjoyed the event, and it was concluded with vote of thanks by Agnes Theressa Livera from 1st BA. B.Ed. who thanked everyone for their lively participation in the event.

Unscripted X was the first ever offline event conducted by the B. Ed. Association this year and needless to say, the event was successful. The credit goes to all the participants, the audience, the panel of judges and the team of B.Ed. association who worked meticulously to make this event a successful one.
