

MSC PSYCHOLOGY (2022-23)

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

1. To enable the students to apply the principles of Psychology on Human behaviour for enhanced functioning.
2. Develop scientific reasoning skills contributing to research in various fields of Psychology.
3. Training in specialized fields enables the students to work towards betterment of Mental health in the society, provide counselling services to individuals across lifespan and management of Human Resources.

Course Title : Semester 1 - Personality Theories

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Equip them to compare and contrast basic concepts and principles of major Theories which could help them to address personality development.
2. Integrate different perspectives to explain human behaviour in everyday life.

Course Title: Semester 1 – Basic Cognitive Processes

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To understand the significance of cognitive processes for understanding human behaviour, especially memory, language and perception.
2. To give the students an indepth understanding of concepts in Cognitive

Course Title: Biopsychology I

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To equip the students with the knowledge of brain-behaviour relationship which will enable them to infer the organic basis of human and animal behaviour.
2. To kindle the students interest in research in neuropsychology and neuroscience.

Course Title: Semester 1- Quantitative Research Methods and Statistics

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Understand research methodology and learn concepts of planning and research.
2. Enable them to work in research projects and funding agencies

Course Title : Semester 1 – Cyberpsychology (Allied Paper)

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To broaden the knowledge of students about issues in cyberpsychology
2. Enable them to use cyberspace in their profession.

Course Title : Semester 1 – Sports and Exercise Psychology (Allied Paper)

Course Outcomes (CO)

- 1. To understand how participation in sport influences the psychological characteristics of the individual athlete.
- 2. To acquire skills and knowledge about sport psychology that you can apply as a coach, athlete, or other practitioner.

Course Title: Semester 1 – Enhancing Psychological health (Open Elective)

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Using the principles of Psychology in every day life for Non Psychology students.

Course Title : Semester II – Qualitative Research Methods in Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To familiarize students to the different approaches and data collection and Analysis for qualitative research.
2. To introduce students to qualitative research in Psychology

Course Title: Semester II – Applied Social Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. This course will enhance the understanding how individual behaviour is influenced by socio-cultural context.
2. To train the students to apply socio-psychological knowledge to analyse and explain human interaction in different situations and in solving social problems

Course Title: Semester II – Biopsychology II

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Aims at understanding brain mechanism governing behaviours of Memory, sleep, hunger & emotions
2. Skills to work in a Neuropsychological lab and research.

Course Title : Semester II – Health Management (Allied Paper)

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Understand the dimensions of wellness and the impact on their overall health.
2. Explain how positive lifestyle choices can promote lifetime wellness

Course Title : Semester II – Higher Cognitive Processes

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To learn the principles of creativity, reasoning and decision making
2. Understanding higher order thought processes. Skills to do Cognitive Neuroscience research.

Course Title: Semester II – School Psychology (Allied Paper)

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Identify educational problems of students at different stages
2. Administer and interpret different types of tests
3. Help students with learning difficulties and social/emotional problems

Course Title: Semester III – Community Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. The paper aims to introduce to students key concepts of community psychology like tiers of prevention and mental health models.
2. It will also familiarize them with how community psychology is applied to

Course Title : Semester III – Positive Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Understand the basic principles of positive psychology & major areas within positive psychology that have received a considerable amount of attention in the literature.
2. Use the knowledge of Positive psychology in Counselling

Course Title: Semester III – Clinical Psychology -Psychopathology (Adults and Geriatrics)

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To train the student in understanding mental illnesses and to provide a strong foundation to the etiological and epidemiological factors of the various psychological disorders.
2. Train them to have an understanding of ethical code of conduct among clinical population.

Course Title: Semester III – Clinical Psychology - Assessment and Therapy

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Train the students in diagnosis and using appropriate assessment tools
2. Train them to chalk out a suitable treatment programme

Course Title: Semester III –Industrial Psychology Organizational Behaviour I

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To understand individual and interpersonal behaviour at work.
2. To orient the students with the concepts related to power, politics & performance appraisal.

Course Title : Semester III –Industrial Psychology Human Resource management - 1

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To provide insight to theoretical perspectives, concepts, issues and practices in human resource management.
2. To impart knowledge on the key aspects of human resource management.

Course Title : Semester III – Counselling Theory And Skills

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To be able to critically evaluate the various approaches to counselling
2. To comprehend the basic skills required for an effective counsellor

Course Title : Semester III – Fundamentals of counselling

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Analyse the various aspects involved in the counselling relationship.
2. Critically analyse the ethical issues and the need for research in the field of counselling psychology.
3. Understand the application and need to use testing and assessment tools in a counselling relationship.

Course Title here : Semester III – Forensic and Criminal Psychology (Allied Paper)

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To familiarize the students with basic principles of forensic psychology.
2. Train in assessment in Medico-legal cases.

Course Title : Semester IV – Life Span Development

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Students of Lifespan development will incorporate the theoretical knowledge in understanding human behaviour through the lifespan.
2. Applying this knowledge in counselling across life span.

Course Title : Semester IV – Clinical Psychology - Child Psychopathology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To provide an overview of abnormal Child psychology
2. To enable the students to understand the theories about the development of various disorders and train in counselling and therapy.

Course Title : Semester IV – Clinical Psychology –Assessment and Intervention

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Train the students in assessing the children and in report writing.
2. Enable them to use appropriate intervention strategies for the children.

Course Title : Semester IV – Organizational behavior –II organizational Development and change

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To familiarize the students about the concepts of OD elaborately.
2. To understand the dynamics of organizational structure and design whole implanting change .

Course Title : Semester IV – Human Resource Management –II

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. To impart psychological principles and process of Human Resource Management.
2. To provide an insight for psychological strategies and challenges in managing Human resource.

Course Title : Semester III – Child and Adolescent Counselling

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Students will gain understanding about the developmental challenges among children and adolescents the counselling needs among children, adolescents and children from special populations
2. Awareness about the counselling process and relationship among children and adolescents

Course Title : Semester III – Couples, Family and Workplace Counselling

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. The students will be able to better understanding about the dynamics of family and couple relationship.
2. Better awareness on the counselling needs of couples and family

