

B.A. Psychology (Hons.) (2022-23)

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

PO1: An in depth and strong foundation in all branches of Psychology

PO2: Well equipped with research skills for more intense research

PO3: Applying all the assessment techniques in different domains.

PO4: More insight in choosing among the different subfields of Psychology

PO5: Competent in the area of Mental health and Counselling

Course Title: Semester 1- Paper 1: Introduction to Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Foundational concepts in the field of psychology is introduced
2. Application of psychological concepts in daily life
3. Understanding the various perspectives of psychology
4. Grasping the fundamental processes underlying human behaviour
5. Introducing key concepts, perspectives, theories and sub-fields of psychology

Course Title: Semester 1- Paper 2: Foundations of Social Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Gaining insights into current social trends and social issues
2. Cultivating an understanding of the rapidly changing social world
3. Grasping psychological theories relevant in the social world
4. Obtaining an appreciation for the use of experimental research in psychology

Course Title: Semester 1- Paper 3: Basic Research and Statistics in Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Fostering a research mindset among students
2. Distinguishing between different types of research studies
3. Orienting students to the step-by-step process of research
4. Grasping the basic principles and calculations of statistics

Course Title: Semester 2- Paper 1: Perceptual and Cognitive Processes

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Understanding the basics of cognitive psychology
2. Implementing problem-solving and decision-making processes
3. Distinguishing between fundamental cognitive processes
4. Examining the theories and physiological processes of memory encoding, storage and retrieval

Course Title: Semester 2- Paper 2: Biological Basis of Behaviour

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Equipping students with the knowledge of the mind/brain
2. Infer the mind-body connection related to behaviour and thinking
3. Understand the physiological basis of human and animal behaviour
4. Introducing students to neuropsychology and allied fields

Course Title: Semester 2- Paper 3: Foundations of Indian Psychology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Familiarizing students with psychological insights originating in India
2. Introduce the concept of Indian knowledge systems
3. Highlighting the use of Indian knowledge systems towards global discipline of psychology
4. Fostering interest in the concepts of self, development and well-being from an Indian psychological perspective

Course Title: Semester 3- Paper 1: Theories of Child Development

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Distinguish between major theoretical perspectives in Child Psychology
2. Explaining the relative contributions of 'nature' and 'nurture' in the context of human development
3. Implementing relevant techniques of data collection and analysis in studying behaviour in children
4. Applying concepts and theories of development to everyday situations and interactions

Course Title: Semester 3- Paper 2: Developmental Psychopathology

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Analyse the causes of childhood disorders
2. Obtaining information about special education and manage children with disabilities
3. Understand the historical and contemporary views on abnormality
4. Distinguish between categories of psychological disorders

Course Title: Semester 3- Paper 3: Psychology in Education

Course Outcomes (CO)

1. Identifying strategies for enhancing students' abilities to use complex cognitive skills
2. Differentiating students in the context of learning styles, intelligence, socio-cultural backgrounds and its relevance to studies
3. Understanding specific abilities and disabilities that modern classrooms can accommodate
4. Grasp classroom management strategies that facilitate the learning process and deal with problem behaviour