Mount Carmel College- Empowering through Education

5

5.3.2

5.3.2- Presence of an active Student Council & representation of students on academic & administrative bodies/committees of the institution

The democratically elected body of the student council play an important role in ensuring student representation in all realms of campus life. The management, faculty and students aim to direct its activities along the lines of the institution missions of- ‘To facilitate leadership among students to proactively involve themselves in social liberation’ & ‘To work towards sustaining the integrity of human existence and fostering interconnectedness, kinship, and eco-justice’.
